WHAT DO WE BELIEVE IN?

- Everyone is in development in some context of their life
- Education increases an individual's power in society
- Asking questions is one of the most powerful tools a student has
- The most meaningful accomplishments are made by teams:

  You don't have to do it all on your own!
AGENDA

- Community
- English and Math courses your first year
- How to know which ones are for you
- What is Write to Register?
- What is Early Start?
- Academic Resources at SF State
- Why SF State?
COMMUNITY

Turn to someone you don’t know:
1. Share your name
2. Where you are from
3. Some group you belong to
   (Sports Team, Art Club, Part-time job, Volunteer)
Want to graduate and have gained skills and knowledge?

Build Community!
The Metro College Success Program helps first-generation, low-income, and underrepresented students succeed at SFSU.

Metro is a small learning community of students who receive personalized in-class academic support, advising, and tutoring during your first two years.

Stop by to one of our information sessions to learn more!

We are located in HSS 135.

Sessions are held between 8:30am - 12:30pm.

Step 1:

English

By selecting Opt Out, you have indicated you will not participate in the Early Start Program for Written Communication. Please choose this if you are pathway 3 or 4 for math.

Math

Thank you for signing up for the Early Start Program for Math/Quantitative Reasoning at San Francisco State University. You will be required to enroll in Early Start Math 101 this Summer that matches your intended major (Science/Bus/Economics or Liberal Arts/Social Science). Look for an email from the Registrar’s Office with enrollment information.

This is a reminder that as a non-financial aid student, you are not eligible for a CSU Early Start Program financial aid waiver. You will be required to pay fees when you enroll in an Early Start course at a CSU campus.

Step 3:

The Early Start Program provides California Residents in path/category 3 or 4 to experience a week of college living and learning right before school starts. Classes will help students review reading, writing, critical thinking, and quantitative reasoning—and count one unit toward the 120 needed to graduate. (Science, Math, and Engineering students may opt into a three-unit June-Aug pre-calculus course that allows them a head start on their math requirements on a space available basis.)

* The CSU makes every effort to keep student costs to a minimum. Fees listed in published schedules or student accounts may need to be increased when public funding is inadequate. Therefore, CSU must reserve the right, even after initial fee payments are made, to increase or modify any listed fees, without notice, until the date when instruction for a particular semester or quarter has begun. All CSU listed fees should be regarded as estimates that are subject to change upon approval by The Board of Trustees.

Success Strategies for Early Start

- Attend daily, on time
- Communicate in work groups
- Ask questions
- Visit Campus Academic Resource Program (CARP.SFSU.EDU) for tutoring
- Visit us at Developmental Studies Office! (ADM 211)
Commonly Asked Questions:

What if I can’t take Early Start because I’ll be out of the country all summer or have encountered a medical emergency?

Please contact the Developmental Studies Office at develops@sfsu.edu for next steps.
Commonly Asked Questions:

I had a fee waiver when I first looked, but now I don’t. What gives?

Fee waiver is based on your Estimated Family Contribution (EFC)
- EFC is based on your family’s (or your) financial paperwork
- Sometimes the EFC is updated based on newly acquired documentation
- Students who can prove financial hardship may explore an appeal with Andrew Brosnan at abrosnan@sfsu.edu.
Commonly Asked Questions:

I need to take my Early Start courses at another CSU. How can I do that?

You need to work with that CSU. Choose them within your Early Start page. They will send you info and an ID for that school so you can sign up with them.
Commonly Asked Questions:

I don’t seem to have a link to Enroll in Early Start at my Student Center.

Reason 1: You are exempt due to test scores, GPA, and/or course work.
Reason 2: The university doesn’t consider you a California resident for tuition purposes.

This could be because:
- Your permanent address is not in California.
- Your records suggest you might qualify as a Dreamer/AB540/Undocumented student.

Contact the Registrar at One Stop (Student Services Building) to appeal residency status or the Dream Center (drc@sfsu.edu) to discuss AB540/undocumented resources.
